Instructions for Recipient

Recipient's taxpayer identification number (TIN). For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)). However, the issuer has reported your complete TIN to the IRS.

Account number. May show an account or other unique number the payer assigned to distinguish your account.

Box 1. Shows nonemployee compensation. If you are in a trade or business, report this amount on Schedule C or F (Form 1040). If the amount in this box is subject to self-employment tax, also complete Schedule SE (Form 1040). If you are not an employee and did not receive payment as an independent contractor, see the instructions for your tax return.

Box 2. If checked, $5,000 or more of sales of consumer products was paid to you on a buy-sell, deposit-commission, or other basis. Generally, report any income from your sale of these products on Schedule C (Form 1040).

Box 3. Shows your total compensation of excess golden parachute payments subject to a 20% excise tax. See your tax return instructions for where to report.

Box 4. Shows backup withholding. A payer must backup withhold on certain payments if you did not give your TIN to the payer. Include this amount on your income tax return as tax withheld.

Boxes 5 through 7. Show state income tax withheld from the payments, the state and payer's state identification number, and the amount of the payment reported to the state.
