Re: Demand for payment, invoice BRM-20788 (the "July 21 Delivery")

Dear Mr. Pruitt:

This firm represents Marsh & Mill Bakehouse LLC ("Marsh & Mill") of 731 Haywood Rd, Asheville, North Carolina, in connection with the delivery your company made to Marsh & Mill on Tuesday, July 21, 2026 under invoice BRM-20788 and the Supply Agreement between Blue Ridge Mill Supply and Marsh & Mill dated February 26, 2024 (the "Agreement"). Please direct all further communication on this matter to me.

1. The July 21 Delivery consisted of 40 bags of organic bread flour, 50 lb, lot 26-0714-OB, invoiced at $35.05 per bag for a total of $1,402.00. Marsh & Mill paid that invoice in full by ACH on July 22, 2026.

2. On the morning of July 23, 2026, Marsh & Mill opened the bags and found the flour musty and clumped. All 40 bags were affected, and seven bags were water stained on the bottom third. The pallet had been held in dry storage, off the floor, where the recorded temperature for July 21 through July 23 was 65 to 66 F. The condition of the flour was photographed the same day, and one empty bag showing the lot code has been kept.

3. Marsh & Mill notified you in writing on July 23, 2026, the day it was found, within the seven-day period, and sent three of those photographs. Under Section 4 of the Agreement, Blue Ridge Mill Supply warrants that all product delivered will be fresh and dry. Flour in the condition described above does not meet that warranty. Marsh & Mill asked for a refund on July 27, 2026, and your reply of July 28, 2026 declined it.

4. Before the condition of the flour was discovered, part of it had been mixed into that morning's dough. Those batches had to be discarded, and the other ingredients in them were lost, as follows:

Ingredient lost	Batches	Amount
Butter	Brioche, 2 batches	$142.80
Eggs	Brioche	$61.20
Seeds and grains	Seeded loaf	$48.75
Rye and AP flour blended into dough	Mixed doughs	$65.75
Total		$318.50

5. Marsh & Mill therefore demands payment of $1,720.50, being the $1,402.00 paid on invoice BRM-20788 and the $318.50 in lost ingredients set out above.

6. Please remit payment, or provide a written response, within 14 days of the date of this letter, that is, by August 24, 2026. Payment may be made to Marsh & Mill through this office; please contact me for instructions. If you have referred this matter to your insurer, please send me the carrier's name and claim number so that I can work with the adjuster directly.

Marsh & Mill would prefer to resolve this promptly and without further proceedings. This letter is written without prejudice to any of Marsh & Mill's rights or remedies under the Agreement or North Carolina law, all of which are reserved.

Sincerely,

Hal Greer
