2026 Tax Planning Checklist

Client	Elena Marsh / Marsh & Mill Bakehouse LLC (single-member LLC)	Prepared	Monday, October 5, 2026
Prepared by	Priscilla Vance, CPA	Meeting	Tuesday, November 17, 2026, 10:00 to 11:30, at our office

DEADLINE: Friday, November 13, 2026. Send your 2026 year-to-date deductions in two clearly separate sections, Business and Personal. Figures from January 1 through the date you prepare the packet are fine; we will true up in January.

Section A. Business (Marsh & Mill Bakehouse LLC)

Use the business checking and business Visa only. Group by category; vendor detail inside each category helps.

	Item	What to send	Notes
[ ]	Ingredients and supplies	Year-to-date totals by vendor (flour, dairy, cash and carry)	Include every flour vendor used in 2026, including any short-term bridge purchases.
[ ]	Packaging	Year-to-date total	Boxes, bread bags, cups.
[ ]	Payroll	Hearth Payroll year-to-date register: gross wages, employer taxes	Through the most recent pay run before November 13.
[ ]	Rent	Monthly rent paid, January through November	Café lease, 731 Haywood Rd.
[ ]	Utilities	Electric and water for the café	Monthly totals are fine.
[ ]	Repairs and maintenance	Amount, date and vendor for each repair, with receipt	Equipment repairs over $1,000 should come with the receipt so we can decide expense vs. capitalize.
[ ]	Legal and professional fees	Payments to attorneys and to this office, by date	Amounts and dates only. I do not need any underlying legal documents.
[ ]	Travel	Airfare, lodging and registration for each trip, with the business purpose	One line per trip. Meals separately if you kept them.
[ ]	Permits, licenses, processing	County permits, market fees, Square processing fees	Square annual summary is acceptable for processing fees.
[ ]	Other income	Workshop fees and any other non-sales income, by date	Sourwood Culinary Studio workshops. I have your 2025 1099-NEC on file.

Section B. Personal

Use your personal checking, savings and mortgage only. Keep this section on its own page or in its own file.

	Item	What to send	Notes
[ ]	Mortgage interest	Interest paid year to date	Mountain Credit Union issues Form 1098 in January. A year-to-date figure is enough for now.
[ ]	Property tax	Amount paid through escrow, with date	The Buncombe County bill is usually paid from escrow in December.

	Item	What to send	Notes
[ ]	Estimated tax payments	Federal and NC payments made in 2026, each with date and amount	Q4 is due Friday, January 15, 2027.
[ ]	Education payments for Hazel	Tuition and required course materials paid in 2026	UNC Chapel Hill will issue Form 1098-T in January.

Section C. Items that belong outside the business section

	Item	What to send	Notes
[ ]	Owner draws	Leave out of both sections	Transfers from the LLC to your personal account are not deductible expenses.
[ ]	Transfers between your own accounts	Leave out	Savings to checking, card payments from checking, and similar moves are not expenses.
[ ]	Estimated tax payments	Personal section only	Never a business expense, even when the funds came from an owner draw.
[ ]	Personal purchases on the business card	List separately as personal, not deductible	If anything personal landed on the business Visa, flag it on its own line so we can treat it as a draw. Do not net it against business totals.
[ ]	Personal gifts and household costs	Leave out of the business section	Anything paid from personal accounts for personal reasons stays personal.

Section D. Already on file here

- 2025 Form 1099-NEC from Sourwood Culinary Studio (scan).
- 2025 Forms W-2 issued to your staff (copies).
- Business bank and Visa statements in the shared Bank Statements folder (read-only access).
- SEP-IRA: we set the contribution together each spring, as usual. Nothing needed for this packet.

Section E. Agenda for November 17

1. Review the business and personal sections.
2. 2027 payroll change from my October 2 email.
3. Q4 2026 estimates (federal and NC), due Friday, January 15, 2027.
4. 2027 estimated payment schedule.
5. Year-end timing: purchases or repairs worth doing before December 31.

Questions before then: call (828) 555-0119 or email priscilla@vancefieldscpa.com.
