Partial payments

Any partial payments that you make are not applied to your mortgage, but instead are held in a separate suspense account. If you pay the balance of a partial payment, the funds will then be applied to your mortgage.

Escrow

Your escrow account pays your property taxes and homeowners insurance. We review it at least once a year and send you an escrow account disclosure statement that explains any change to your monthly payment.

Questions, errors and information requests

If you believe there is an error on your account or you want information about your loan, write to Mr. Cooper, Attn: Customer Relations, at the address on mrcooper.com, or call (888) 555-0153. Include your name, loan number and a description of the error or the information you need.

Need help with your payment?

If you are having trouble making your payment, call us as soon as you can. For a list of homeownership counselors or counseling organizations in your area, visit consumerfinance.gov/mortgagehelp.

Credit reporting

We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.
